

WEDDING OF MISS JESSIE WILSON AND FRANCIS B. SAYRE

Mr. and Mrs. Sayre and East Room in Which They Were Wedded.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Jessie Woodrow Wilson, second of President Wilson's three daughters, was married to Francis Bowes Sayre at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. The ceremony took place in the east room of the White House, and was performed by Rev. Sylvester Beach of Princeton, N. J., the president's former pastor and the close friend of the Wilson family for many years.

The entire affair was very simple, as had been requested by the bride, and the number of guests was rather small—distressingly so to many persons in official and social circles of Washington who had expected to receive invitations but were disappointed.

Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson, eldest of the three daughters, acted as maid of honor to her sister, and Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, the youngest, was one of the bridesmaids. The three other bridesmaids were Miss Adeline Mitchell Scott of Princeton, daughter of Prof. William B. Scott; Miss Marjorie Brown of Atlanta, Pa., daughter of Mrs. Wilson's cousin, Col. E. T. Brown, and Miss Mary G. White of Baltimore, a college friend of the bride.

Dr. Grenfell Is Best Man.

Mr. Sayre was attended by his best man, Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, the famous medical missionary to the fishermen of the Labrador coast. The two men have long been fast friends and Mr. Sayre spent two summers helping Dr. Grenfell with his work.

The ushers were Charles E. Hughes, Jr., son of Justice Hughes of the Supreme court and a classmate of Mr. Sayre in the Harvard law school; Dr. Gilbert Horax of Montclair, N. J., who was a classmate at Williams college in 1909 and now at Johns Hopkins university; Benjamin Burton of New York city, and Dr. Scoville Clark of Salem, Mass., who was Mr. Sayre's companion in Labrador and Newfoundland.

Wedding Gown of Ivory Satin.

The bride's gown was of satin, of a soft ivory tint, trimmed with beautiful lace, both old and rare. It was made in New York and the women connoisseurs declared that it was a masterpiece. The lingerie in the trousseau is of the most dainty material and is all hand made. The maid of honor and bridesmaids were beautifully gowned and all looked their best.

Coming right in the midst of the chrysanthemum season, this was made a chrysanthemum wedding and that flower was used most profusely in adorning the White House. As the bride's favorite color is mauve, that was made the prevailing color in the decorations. The east room, and indeed all the rooms in the president's mansion, were beautiful indeed.

Depart on Their Honeymoon.

After the ceremony was completed and the couple had received the congratulations of the guests, refreshments were served, and then Mr. and Mrs. Sayre departed for their honeymoon. Their plans include a visit to the home of Miss Nevin, Mr. Sayre's aunt, at Windsor Forges, near Churchtown, Pa., where they first met. After January 1 they will live in Williams-town, Mass., for Mr. Sayre is to sever this connection with the office of District Attorney Whitman in New York and become assistant to Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams college.

There was one disappointment for those who attended the wedding, for the gifts were not put on display. It is known that these included many beautiful and valuable articles sent by relatives and personal friends of the bride and groom and of their families and by admirers of President Wilson. Handsome presents were sent by both the senate and the house, that of the latter being a diamond lavalliere which Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of the speaker, bought for the representatives in New York.

Guests Limited to 400.

Those who were invited to witness the wedding were mostly personal friends and the number was kept down close to four hundred. The list was pared and revised several times, and as has been said, the operation resulted in many heartburnings. From the house of representatives' circle, for instance, the only guests were Speaker Champ Clark, Mrs. Clark and Miss Genevieve Clark, Marjory Leader Underwood and Mrs. Underwood, and Minority Leader Mann and Mrs. Mann. As might be expected, the streets outside the White House were as crowded as the police would permit with curious persons eager to watch the arrival and departure of the guests.

and trying to obtain through the windows a glimpse of the doings within. The police arrangements were admirable and nothing happened, in the White House or outside, to mar the happy occasion.

Immense Wedding Cake.

Jessie Wilson's wedding cake was a triumph of the pastry cook's art. It was two and a half feet tall, counting the white orchids that were placed on top of it, and weighed 135 pounds. The first layer was four inches thick and 22 inches across. The cake contained 19 ingredients and its cost was about $500. Over the body of the cake was molded a thick white icing scroll work, on its top was a design for the initials of the bride and groom, done in silver, and around the sides were lilacs of the valley in white sugar. This delicious confection was distributed in 2,000 dainty white boxes tied with satin ribbon and each of the proper size to go under the pillow of the recipient to bring dreams.

Mrs. Sayre was born in Gainesville, Pa., twenty-five years ago. She attended the Women's college at Baltimore and was an honor member of the class of 1908, being also elected a member of Phi Beta Kappa. For two years after her graduation she engaged in settlement work in Kensington, Pa., and she is a member of the executive board of the National Young Woman's Christian association. She has delivered several excellent addresses in public.

In appearance she does not resemble her father as much as do her sisters, having rather the features of her mother's family, the Axsons.

Something About the Groom.

Francis Bowes Sayre is twenty-eight years old, and was born at South Bethlehem, Pa., a son of the late Robert Heysham Sayre, who built the Lehigh Valley railroad and at one time was assistant to the president of the Bethlehem iron works, since known as the Bethlehem steel works. He was also once president of the board of trustees of the Lehigh university.

Francis Bowes Sayre graduated from Lawrenceville school, Lawrenceville, N. J., in 1904, and from Williams college in 1909. He entered Harvard law school and graduated "cum laude." He was a member of the Sigma Phi fraternity, Gargoyles society and the Phi Beta Kappa at Williams. For the past year he has been working in the office of District Attorney Whitman of New York. During the summer he was admitted to the bar of New York state.

Mr. Sayre's mother is Mrs. Martha Finlay Sayre, daughter of the late William Nevin, who was president of Franklin and Marshall college at Lancaster, Pa. She is a descendant of Hugh Williamson of North Carolina, one of the framers of the Constitution of the United States, and is a sister of the late Robert Nevin, head of the American church at Rome, and a cousin of Ethelbert Nevin, the composer.

Other White House Weddings.

The wedding of Jessie Wilson and Francis Sayre was the thirteenth to be solemnized in the White House. The first was that of Anna Todd, a niece of Dolly Madison's first husband, and John G. Jackson. Then Mrs. Madison's sister, Lucy, was married to Judge Todd of Kentucky. The third wedding, that of Maria Monroe, daughter of President Monroe, to Samuel Lawrence Gouverneur in 1820 marked the first social use of the east room. Eight years later John, the second son of President John Quincy Adams, married his cousin, Mary Hellen, in the blue room. While General Jackson was president there were three weddings in the White House, those of Della Lewis to Alphonse Joseph Yver Pageot of the French legation; Mary Eaton to Lucien B. Polk, and Emily Martin to Louis Randolph. Many years passed before there was another marriage ceremony in the president's mansion, the next being of Nellie, the only daughter of General Grant, and Algernon C. F. Sartoris. In 1876 Emily Platt, a niece of Mrs. Hayes, was married in the blue room to Gen. Russell Hastings. The eleventh of this series of weddings was that of President Cleveland to Frances Folsom, and the twelfth that of President Roosevelt's daughter Alice, to Nicholas Longworth.

WOMEN WILL LOBBY

CONGRESSMEN AND SENATORS WILL BE ASKED TO GRANT WOMEN THE BALLOT.

Mrs. Desha Breckinridge, President, Recommended That Suffrage Speakers Be Put on All County Fair and Chautauqua Programs.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Louisville, Ky.—Plans for securing a vote on an enabling act of a constitutional amendment granting equal suffrage were discussed at session of the Kentucky Equal Rights association. Announcement was made that Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, noted suffragist, of New York, had contributed $200 to the Kentucky fund. A lobby will be maintained at the coming legislative session. Congressmen and senators from this state are to be urged to work for a law granting women the ballot on elections for senators and representatives. Officers were elected as follows:

MRS. DESHA BRECKINRIDGE.

Mrs. E. L. Hutchinson, Lexington, first vice president; Mrs. Charles Firth, Covington, second vice president; Mrs. Jacob B. Judah, Louisville, third vice president; Mrs. Robert E. McDowell, Louisville, recording secretary; Mrs. Thomas J. Smith, Frankfort, member of national executive committee; Mrs. Charles Firth, Covington; Mrs. Charles Nield, Mrs. S. Thurston Ballard and Miss Fannie Ballard, Louisville; Mrs. E. K. Freeman, Ashland; Mrs. Fayette Johnston, Mrs. Mary Cramer, Mrs. E. L. Hutchinson and Miss Laura Clay, Lexington, delegates to national convention in Washington the last week in December.

Mrs. Desha Breckinridge, president of the association, was elected for a two-year term at the last convention, and will continue to guide the destinies of the organization for another year.

Dr. R. M. Allen, of the state experiment station, declared all physicians should favor equal rights because women aided in movements for better food, drugs and living conditions. A president's fund was started. It is to be made up of $25 contributions from 100 men and 100 women.

According to the report made by Mrs. Breckinridge the association has representation in 62 counties in the state. Leagues have been organized in 21 counties. It was recommended that more concerted efforts be made to place suffrage speakers on all county fairs and chautauqua programs; the appointment of a state press committee; that the women be educated to use the vote they have already gained. Mrs. Breckinridge stated this will be one of the strongest factors in the granting of full suffrage to women.

INDUSTRIAL CONCERNS COMBINE.

Whitesburg, Ky.—Little is known here of the proposed combine of the several big corporations, including the Mineral Fuel Co.; the Slemo Coal Co.; the Consolidated Coal Co.; the Mineral Development Co., and the other concerns making extensive developments in this section, into one gigantic corporation which has been reported through the financial and industrial world during the past few days. It is known, however, that a large party of the big capitalists, financiers and others is now in the coal fields after having gone over the work in Fleming, Potters, Fork, Jenkins, Durham, Burdine and McRoberts, new cities.

TURKEYS BY THOUSANDS.

Paris, Ky.—Charles S. Brent & Bro., of this city, made their final shipment of turkeys to the east from this city for the Thanksgiving market. A total of 6,750 were slaughtered here by him; 7,500 in Carlisle; 6,000 in Millersburg, and 6,250 in Flemingsburg. The entire lot was shipped in cold storage by express to Boston and New York.

TURKEYS FOR OFFICIAL FAMILY.

New Castle, Ky.—The Hon. South Trimble, clerk of the United States house of representatives, shipped to Washington from Henry county 19 mammoth bronze turkeys for President Woodrow Wilson, the members of his cabinet and a few other dignitaries, for Thanksgiving. The largest bird, a 40-pounder, went to the president. The order was placed through Jo Morris of this place, who is congressman J. C. Cantrill's secretary, and Mrs. B. F. Jackson.

CITIES STILL BATTLE

Controversy Between Pine Knot and Whitley City Reaches Courts.

Stearns, Ky.—The controversy over the location of the county seat of the new county of McCreary, which has been agitating the people of this section for the past two years, was further complicated by the filing of a contest suit in the McCreary circuit court to set aside the result of the recent election, which gave Whitley City the county seat by a majority of 186 over Pine Knot. Johnson, Wilson, Logan, Harmon and others on behalf of Pine Knot allege in the petition filed that the calling of the election was not done in accordance with the law; that town lots of Whitley City were given away to influence voters; that the conditions of the election in some precincts were not legal, etc.

The Whitley City Improvement Co., with some nine or ten citizens, advocates of Whitley City, were made defendants to the suit. In the meantime all county officers have moved their offices to Whitley City and are conducting the county affairs from that point.

TOBACCO MARKET OPENED.

Over 500,000 Pounds Sold—The Price $24 Per Hundred.

Lexington, Ky.—Widespread interest centered in the opening of the 1913-14 season of the Lexington tobacco market, and the occasion was honored by the presence of the Lexington Commercial Club in a body, many of the leading physicians of the South, here attending the convention of the Southern Medical Association, officials of the Burley Tobacco Society and citizens generally, including business men, tobacco manufacturers, growers, buyers and speculators from all over the country. The new Shelburne warehouse was the scene of the opening sale, and approximately 72,000 pounds were sold, the top price being $24 per hundred. Sales were made at all of the other houses, and altogether nearly 500,000 pounds were sold.

JUDGE MAKES APPOINTMENTS.

Lexington, Ky.—Appointments to be made by Judge Frank A. Bullock when he moves into the office of county judge January 1 are announced as follows: County bookkeeper L. E. Pearce; superintendent of turnpikes, R. W. Davis; keeper of the county infirmary, C. R. Jordan, now commissary at the Frankfort Prison; infirmary commissioner and receiver, Dr. J. J. Gibson, if he wants it; infirmary physician, Dr. J. E. Willis; courthouse caretakers, R. W. O'Neill, upper floor and John C. Herndon, lower floor; courthouse night watchman, John Shannon, and county jail physician, Dr. E. J. Brasher. Several other appointments are yet to be announced.

ANNOUNCES BIG DIVIDEND.

Louisville, Ky.—Stockholders of the Standard Oil Co. of Kentucky received an announcement from the company of plan to treble the capitalization of the corporation and to declare a cash dividend on the stock of 200 per cent, with the privilege to stockholders of taking new stock instead of the dividend. Notices sent out state that a special meeting of the stockholders has been called for December 18 at the home office, 426 West Bloom street, at which an amendment to the articles of incorporation by which the authorized capital stock may be increased from $1,000,000 to $3,000,000 is to be considered.

FLOCK OF 2,400 GEES.

Glasgow, Ky.—The largest drove of geese ever brought to Glasgow arrived here from Cumberland county, there being 2,400 in the drove. The geese were purchased in the Cumberland river section by A. Clauser, known over this section as the "Goose Man." They will be shipped to Mansfield, Ill., where they will be fed for several weeks before being placed on the market. Geese are becoming one of the chief industries for the mountain sections of Kentucky, especially along the Cumberland and Barren rivers. The geese were driven a distance of forty-five miles, and took several days to make the journey.

WILL STUDY CONVICT SYSTEM.

Frankfort, Ky.—When the general assembly convenes the state prison commission intends to be prepared to submit to the legislators practical information concerning the working of convicts on the public roads, if the general assembly decides to enact a law putting into effect the constitutional amendment adopted at the November election. Chairman Daniel E. O'Sullivan said that when the December meeting is over he and Commissioners Henry Lawrence and M. F. Conley will visit other states and study their methods of handling prisoners in road work.

DINNER FOR CHILDREN OF POOR.

Paris, Ky.—For the first time in the history of this city an individual will provide a Thanksgiving dinner for the poor children of Paris. Mrs. Nellie Highland, desiring that all the children whose parents are unable to provide them with dinner in keeping with the spirit of Thanksgiving day, is making arrangements to entertain them upon a large scale. The dinner will be served in the basement of the courthouse and a large number of children are expected to be in attendance.

NAVAJO UPRISING

SOLDIERS EN ROUTE TO THE SHIPROCK AGENCY TO QUELL TROUBLE.

Troops Are Equipped To Spend Entire Winter on the Reservation, If Necessary.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Abuquerque, N. M.—Traveling in two special trains, four troops of the Twelfth United States cavalry, accompanied by a detachment of the hospital corps and a commissary wagon on train, passed through here on the way to Gallup, where the troops will detain and march 100 miles overland to Shiprock agency, on the Navajo reservation, to quell an incipient uprising among Indians there.

The troops are equipped to spend the entire winter on the reservation if necessary. It is believed, however, that peace quickly will be restored on the arrival of the cavalry. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, ordered to the reservation by the war department, reached Gallup, where he joined J. R. Galusha, deputy United States Marshal, and the two started by automobile for Shiprock, where Gen. Scott will confer with Agent W. T. Shelton and map out a campaign for subduing the renegade band of Navajos encamped on Beautiful mountain. For several weeks the Indians have defied the authorities to arrest several of their number on charges of bigamy, rioting and assault.

CLANGING OF FIRE BELLS MUSIC.

Winona, Minn.—"The thought of the wild clanging of the fire bells, the rising smoke and the reddening heavens was too much for me. I burned over thirty buildings because the excitement was irresistible," said Frank Norton to the Winona police. Norton formerly was employed as driver of a mail wagon. He confessed that he was the cause of the numerous incendiary fires that had baffled the police the past six months.

SITUATION CONSIDERED GRAVE.

Vera Cruz.—The battleship New Hampshire left this harbor for Tuxpam. The situation at Tuxpam is said to be decidedly grave, as the rebels insist on holding the Pearson oil properties, and have hinted at possible danger to foreigners in the district.

MOTORCYCLIST IS KILLED.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Henry B. Purden, a mechanical engineer, was killed when he drove his motorcycle in front of a rapidly moving trolley car on the outskirts of Camden.

AUTO TURNS TURTLE.

Bellefontaine, O.—An automobile which Lewis Moore, of this city, was driving, skidded and then turned over. Moore suffered probably fatal internal injuries.

TWENTY MEN VOLUNTEER.

Philadelphia, Pa.—The greatest skin grafting operation ever attempted in this country, according to surgeons, will be begun when they will start on the first 20 men who have volunteered to supply cuticle to cover the burns on the body of Miss Nora Coffey, a patient in Northwest General hospital. Several hundred inches of cuticle will be necessary, and the grafting operation will cover a period of something more than a year. She accidentally upset the can of oil and took fire.
